PRESENT:

THE HONOURABLE THE ADMINISTRATOR IN COUNCIL.

ON the recommendation of the Honourable the Attorney-General and under the provisions of the "Court Rules of Practice Act" and all other powers thereunto enabling, the Honourable the Administrator of British Columbia, by and with the advice and consent of his Executive Council, doth order as follows:—

3. Any applicant for letters of administration or probate during the war shall furnish evidence to the satisfaction of the Judge to whom application is made that the person in respect to whose estate such probate or letters of administration are applied for was not a German, Austro-Hungarian, Turkish, or Bulgarian subject; or, failing such evidence, shall produce the licence of the Crown that such probate or letters of administration may be granted. Such applicant shall also give such information as the Registrars of the Courts may require in order to ascertain whether any of the assets would in time of peace be distributable or payable to any such subject, and if required shall make a statutory declaration as to the assets and their disposition in the event of probate or letters of administration being granted.

4. In cases deemed by him proper, the Minister of Finance may sanction the payment of moderate sums out of assets to beneficiaries or creditors who are German, Austro-Hungarian, Turkish, or Bulgarian subjects resident in Canada at the commencement of the war and during the war.

"CONSTITUTIONAL QUESTIONS DETERMINATION ACT."

IN THE COURT OF APPEAL.

Reasons of the Court of Appeal on a Reference had on the 25th Day of June, 1918.

In the Matter of the "British Columbia Prohibition Act"; and in the Matter of the Regulations made and approved the 11th Day of March, 1918, under the Provisions of "The War Measures Act, 1914," being an Act of the Parliament of Canada, 5 George V., Chapter 2.

THE following questions were submitted to the Court of Appeal under the provisions of the "Constitutional Questions Determination Act":—

"1. Do paragraphs 5 and 11 of the regulations made and approved the 11th day of March, 1918, under the provisions of 'The War Measures Act, 1914,' being an Act of the Parliament of Canada, 5 George V., chapter 2, operate to abrogate, annul, or supersede the provisions of section 28 of the 'British Columbia Prohibition Act,' being chapter 49 of the Statutes of 1916 of the Legislature of British Columbia?

"2. Do said regulations or any of them affect, and, if so, to what extent, the constitutional validity of the said 'British Columbia Prohibition Act'?"

COURT OF APPEAL.

Re "British Columbia Prohibition Act." { Judgment of the Hon. ourable Chief Justice
Macdonald.

This is a reference by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to the Court pursuant to the provisions of R.S.B.C. 1911, c. 45. The following question is submitted:—

"Do paragraphs 5 and 11 of the regulations made and approved 11th March, 1918, under the provisions of 'The War Measures Act, 1914,' operate to abrogate or supersede the provisions of section 288 of the 'British Columbia Prohibition Act,' chapter 49 of the Statutes of 1916?"

No question was raised by the Attorney-General as to the validity of the said regulations.

The Provincial Act prohibits the sale of intoxicating liquors within the Province. The validity of the Act is not open to question in the absence of occupation of the field by Federal legislation. Paragraph 5 of the said regulations reads as follows:—

"No person after the 1st April, 1918, shall, either directly or indirectly, sell or contract or agree to sell any intoxicating liquor which is within or which is to be delivered within any prohibited area."

Paragraph 13 of the same regulations provides:—

"These regulations shall be construed as supplementary to the prohibitory laws now in force, or that may be hereafter in force, in any Province or Territory, and shall continue in force during the continuance of the present war and for twelve months thereafter."

So far as the regulations deal with the importation and manufacture of intoxicating liquors into and within the Province, they do not enter upon the Provincial field. The Province could in no circumstances either prohibit the importation of intoxicating liquors into the Province or the manufacture of intoxicating liquors within the Province. Read by itself, said paragraph 5 would bear the construction that the Dominion regulations meant to enter into the Provincial field and prohibit sales within the Province which would fall within the operation of the Provincial Act. Read, however, in the light of the object aimed at as interpreted by said paragraph 13, I am of opinion that paragraph 5 should be read otherwise. This does not mean that paragraph 5 is by judicial construction to be in effect deleted from the regulations. It can be applied, and I think was meant to apply, only to sales which the Province had no power to prohibit, as, for example, sales made by persons outside the Province of intoxicating liquors owned by one of them within the Province.

In view, therefore, of the clear and explicit declaration contained in said paragraph 13 of the supplementary character of the regulations, I think it is clear that the regulations apply only to cases with respect to which the Province would have no jurisdiction to legislate. R. v. Thorburn (1917) 41 O.L.R., 40, is not in point, and in my opinion has no application to the matter before us.

The said question should, therefore, be answered in the negative.

There is a second question submitted, but in view of this answer it becomes unnecessary to consider it.

(Sd.) J. A. MACDONALD, C.J.A.

Victoria, B.C., 9th July, 1918.

JUDGMENT OF THE HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MARTIN.

While section 3 of the regulations (which "have the force of law," section 6 (2) of "The War Measures Act, 1914") taken by itself would be inconsistent with the "British Columbia Prohibition Act," and therefore the latter would be superseded, yet it has to be read in the light of the preamble and of section 13, which declare that the intention is to "make such (Provincial) legislation more effective," and therefore "these regulations shall be construed as supplementary to the prohibitory laws now in force in any Province or Territory." Of course, if the field of legislation had been wholly occupied by the Provincial legislation, then a conflict of legislation would result and a supersession would be inevitable, despite any declaration of intention to the contrary; but it is obvious that two important classes of cases at least affected by section 5 are not the subject of such Provincial legislation, viz.: (1). Sales of intoxicating liquor from other Provinces to be sent here, and (2) sales in other Provinces of said liquor already here. With respect to these, the supplemental effect contemplated and directed by the regulations will attach, and section 5 may properly be paraphrased briefly to read: "No person shall sell intoxicating liquor in British Columbia in cases not already provided for by the Legislature thereof." The point is so clear in my opinion that to further consider it would only be to labour it. The learned Judge below has, I fear, with all due respect, misconceived the effect of the case of Rex v. Thorburn (1917) 41 O.L.R., 39; 39 D.L.R., 300, upon which he relied; when fully considered it is, if anything, an authority which tends to displace his opinion, because here, to apply the reasons of Lord Watson (in the citation quoted therein from Attorney-General for Ontario v. Attorney-General for the Dominion (1896) A.C., 348, these "Provincial prohibitions . . . could have been enforced . . . without coming into conflict with the paramount law of Canada."

It follows that the first question referred to us should be answered in the negative, which renders it unnecessary to consider the second.

(Sd.) ARCHER MARTIN, J.A.

Victoria, B.C., 25th June, 1918.

JUDGMENT OF THE HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE McPHILLIPS.

Being in entire agreement with my brother Martin, I do not find it necessary to add but a word to what my learned brother has said. I see no constitutional or other difficulty—no conflict of laws of any nature or kind; all is supplementary; no displacement of Provincial legislation has occurred.

JUDGMENT OF THE HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE EBERTS.

NOTICE is hereby given that His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, has been pleased to approve the following rules and regulations under the "Soldiers' Land Act":—

RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE GRANTING OF HOMESITES AND THE BUILDING OF DWELLINGS FOR RETURNED SOLDIERS.

1. "Homesites" are residential lots not less than 50' x 120' which have been acquired for the purpose of affording free homesites to returned British Columbia soldiers who follow industrial occupations in or near existing centres of industry, and also to the dependents of those who have been killed and to returned soldiers who have been disabled.

2. For the purpose of these rules and regulations the interpretation of "soldier" shall be as set out in subsections (a) and (b) of section 2 of chapter 80, Statutes of British Columbia for 1918, being the "Soldiers' Land Act."

3. The allotment of homesites shall be made by drawing in a manner to be determined by the Minister of Lands; but priority will be given to the applications of widows and disabled returned soldiers according to the degree of disability or dependents of soldiers who have died in or on account of their service, according to degree of dependency.

4. Each applicant for a homesite shall deposit with his application a fee of $10, which fee, should the applicant be successful, will be credited to the first deposit when the contract or agreement is signed, or forfeited should the applicant fail to comply with or enter into the agreement.

5. Should an application for a homesite be refused for any reason the fees paid in connection herewith shall be promptly returned to the applicant.

6. Dwellings of a maximum value of $2,000 will be built on a plan to be selected by the soldier from the approved plans of the Department of Lands on each homesite upon the entering into of a contract or agreement by the successful applicant and the payment of $50 less the $10 already paid as a first deposit, for the payment of the balance by monthly payments as amortized in accordance with the table of the Department of Lands. The said table is based on 5 per cent. interest per annum and a 10 per cent. administrative charge added spread over 20 years. A large initial payment or deposit may be made or any number of instalments of the principal at any monthly date. Should any soldier settler desire to erect a dwelling exceeding $2,000 in value he may do so upon having the plans thereof approved by the Minister of Lands, but the cost of such dwelling in excess of $2,000 shall be met by the soldier settler, the equity of the Government remaining as a first charge against the property.

Facilities will be afforded men possessing the necessary ability to do the individual work themselves under supervision.

7. The first deposit shall be payable within three months from the date of the allotment of the homesite.

8. The soldier settler shall enter into occupation of the dwelling and commence the monthly payments as set out in clause (6) of these regulations on a date not less than thirty (30) clear days after the date of mailing or delivering to him a notice in writing that the dwelling is ready for occupation.

9. When the purchaser has made such payments as shall leave a balance due to the Government equal to the amount charged for the homesite, exclusive of the dwelling, such balance shall be rebated by the purchaser, provided that ten years' residence has been met and all other conditions have been complied with.

10. All dwellings erected on "homesites" shall be insured by the Department of Lands.

The soldier settler shall pay each month in addition to the payment under the amortization table an amount equal to one-twelfth of the premium of the policy or proportion of the policy, as the case may be, insuring his dwelling.

11. Occupation by the settler, personally or by his family, shall constitute residence. Leave of absence may be obtained on application to the Minister of Lands. Two months' absence without the Minister's approval will constitute forfeiture, and all payments theretofore made shall be deemed to be rental paid for occupancy.

12. If it becomes necessary for the settler to move before the contract or agreement has been completed, he may for sufficient reason be permitted to dispose of such land on obtaining the consent of the Minister of Lands. When any homesite is so resold by the Government to another soldier settler the time of residence of the preceding purchaser may in the discretion of the Minister be credited to the subsequent purchaser.

If a sale be made of the said property to any other than a soldier settler the balance remaining unpaid to the Government shall be paid by the purchaser on such terms as may be decided upon by the Minister of Lands, provided that the first payment shall be not less than 25 per cent. of the balance remaining unpaid.

13. Non-compliance with any of the above regulations will forfeit all claim to the property, but the Minister of Lands is hereby empowered to grant such extensions of time for payments as may in his discretion seem just, and to grant reasonable requests for removal, exchange, or withdrawal according to the merits of each particular case, and to make such disposal or settlement as may be deemed just and equitable.

14. The agreement may contain such other terms and conditions as are considered necessary.

15. Such forms as may be necessary for the information of intending applicants and the proper carrying out of these regulations shall be prepared under the direction of the Minister of Lands.
